Amy K. Noe is a solo general civil practitioner in Richmond, Indiana, where she has practiced for over ten years. A native Texan, Amy graduated with Honors from Earlham College in 1994, taking away a B.A. in English and French Literature. She went on to secure a J.D. cum laude from Indiana University School of Law – Indianapolis in 2000. She worked with Arnold & Noe and Allen Wellman McNew before finally pursuing her dream of a solo practice in May of 2010. She is a registered civil and family mediator and is licensed to practice law in both Indiana and Ohio.

Amy is a member of the Indiana State Bar Association, Wayne County Bar Association, and American Bar Association. She has served on the ISBA Board of Governors as District 10 Representative (2005-2007), Counsel to the President (2007-2008), and Treasurer (2009-2010). ISBA committee work has including the Women in the Law Committee and Ethics Committee and currently includes the Nominating Committee and Member and Member Benefits Committee. She is the sole delegate to the House of Delegates from Wayne County.

Amy is a member of the Indiana Supreme Court's Character and Fitness Committee and has served as President of the District 9 Pro Bono Commission. She also serves her community as President of the Richmond Symphony Orchestra and the Richmond Community Orchestra (where she is also the principal flutist), as well as a board member of the United Way of Whitewater Valley. In addition, Amy is the Vice Chair of the Earlham College Alumni Council and serves on the Earlham College Community Partnership Council. Previously, Amy has also served: Richmond Gymnastics Training Center Board of Directors (President); Richmond-Wayne County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors; Birth-to-Five Board of Directors (Vice President); Richmond Area Plan Commission; and Richmond Community Schools Study Buddy.

Previous speaking engagement topics include legal ethics, family law, elder law, and marketing.

Amy and Steve, her husband of fifteen years, live on the outskirts of Richmond with their five dogs, where they struggle daily for a spot on the couch.