VIII. CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION.

(See Article III, Section E. of Standards)

For both certification and re-certification, you are required to have completed forty (40) hours of continuing legal or mediation education, in family law subjects, during the four year period from August 1, 2007 through July 31, 2011. At least thirty-six (36) of those hours must have been completed during the three-year period from August 1, 2004 through July 31, 2007.

The Family Law Certification Board will obtain a list of your CLE courses from the Indiana Commission for Continuing Legal Education. In order to receive credit for courses taken between the time your application is filed and the end of the three- or four-year ending July 31, 2011, please notify us in writing after submitting the course information to the Indiana Commission for Continuing Legal Education.

You may also receive credit for other continuing legal education activities such as teaching, completing a course in family law or family mediation, speaking at a lecture series, authorizing a book or article, or participating in a professional committee dealing with substantive or procedural family law. To receive credit for such activities, please submit details and the hours of involvement as an attachment to this application. These activities will be reviewed on an individual basis. Generally, credit for teaching, speaking or completing a course in family law or family mediation will be given if the nature of the course or speaking or teaching assignment was such that the Board believes the Indiana Commission for Continuing Legal Education would likely have approved such for continuing legal or mediation education credit in Indiana if such approval had been sought.
